JERRY AND CAROLYN MURRAY

Jerry and Carolyn Murray moved into the Heber Third Ward from Roosevelt, Utah, in the summer of 1968, with two sons, Cory and Lonny. Jerry managed the Christensen Department Store until it burned in February, 1972. When the store burned, Jerry tried to relocate but the company decided not to rebuild in Heber.

Leslie was born in Heber, while Carolyn was Primary President. Her counselors were Peggy Farrer and Betty Young and they had many special experiences during that time.

The family went back to Roosevelt for two years, until Jerry joined the Highway Patrol and they were sent to Coalville to live, while Jerry worked at the Echo Port-of-Entry. They always wanted to return to Heber, so when the chance came to transfer, they came back home.

Jodi was born while they lived in Coalville. So the family of six, now, lived in the Seventh Ward until they finished building their home back in the Heber Third Ward.

Jerry has always been a sportsman. He loves deer and elk hunting, and camping in the mountains.

When Carolyn isn't sewing, she enjoys her family, reading, singing with the Choralettes and her church callings.

Cory fulfilled a year and a half mission in Brazil which was such a wonderful blessing for him and his family. While he was there, he met a wonderful girl named Linda and he went back to get acquainted with her. Her family moved to Heber soon after and in six months they were married in the Salt Lake Temple. They are now living in Salt Lake City while Cory attends the University of Utah.

Lonny is working in Park City and the girls are going to school.

Jerry served as a Ward Clerk in Roosevelt and as Young Men's Counselor, Home Teacher and is now Elders Quorum President in the Heber Third Ward. Carolyn is presently president in the Young Women's Program. Before this calling she was counselor in the Relief Society.
